

TOP 12 TIPS FOR GLOBAL LEADERS

Check your assumptions at the door.

Slow down, speak clearly, and use slang sparingly and carefully.

Add "in country X" to indicate you are thinking globally.

Memorize 5 facts about another country.

Act like an anthropologist, observe and listen.

Seek out global news sources.

Travel adventurously, but take precautions.

Ensure everyone contributes in meetings.

Give constructive feedback but consider the receiver.

Alternate meeting times to accommodate time zones.

Study cross cultural theory with a coach, or online.

Learn key phrases in a few other languages.